Abstracts

Sri Lanka had a swift response to the global pandemic, with the Civil Aviation Authority of Sri Lanka imposing a ban on all passenger arrivals into the country from 18 March. The government also temporarily suspended the issuance of all types of visas for all foreign nationalities until further notice. On 19 March, Sri Lanka Health Authorities dictated that closure of international airports for arrivals. By 20 March, Sri Lanka enacted a strict national curfew to restrict the movement of people a...
