Abstracts

Travel intermediaries in Latin America experienced continued improvement in consumer acceptance over the last five years; rising to become the preferred destination for travel products in all countries in the region. Within intermediaries, similar to other industries, online travel agencies in particular have improved their standing, in most countries leading the market, while physical intermediaries are rapidly losing ground.

Euromonitor International's Travel Intermediaries in Latin America global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Travel market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market from innovation, pricing, channel distribution to economic/lifestyle influences. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and outlines the criteria for success.

Product coverage: Activities (Destination), Lodging, Online Travel Sales and Intermediaries, Tourism Flows, Travel Modes, Traveller Profiles.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
