Abstracts

The Travel Quarterly Statement for Q2 2022 shows a mixed picture for global travel and tourism. On the one hand, there is immense consumer demand as more travel restrictions ease, so much so that supply cannot match it due to challenges such as labour shortages. Rising prices are a major headwind to the speed and scale of the recovery, but for now 2022 is shaping up to be a stellar year, led by North America, Europe and the Caribbean.

Euromonitor International's Travel: Quarterly Statement Q2 2022 global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Travel market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market from innovation, pricing, channel distribution to economic/lifestyle influences. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and outlines the criteria for success.

Product coverage: Activities and Experiences, Lodging, Online Travel and Intermediaries, Tourism Flows, Travel Modes.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
