Abstracts

When it comes time to book holidays, the majority of Austrians still opt for bricks-and-mortar travel retailers. In 2013, 65% of total travel retail value sales in Austria were generated offline. Consequently, going to an actual bricks-and-mortar travel agency and booking a holiday remains the default way for booking all forms of travel and tourism products and services for many Austrians. This is also closely related to the ageing of the Austrian population. During 2013, travel retail was thus...
