Abstracts

As travel and tourism flows increase, travel retail also grows. The number of domestic trips increased by 9% in 2013, boosting sales of in-country flights, package holidays and travel accommodation through travel retailers, as domestic expenditure increased by 10%. At the same time, Chilean tourists increased their frequency of travel abroad, with the number of trips growing by 6% in 2013. In summary, travel and tourism indicators favoured travel retail operations, and provided excellent growth...
