Abstracts

The situation of travel retail did not improve in 2013 that witnessed a continuation of the changes that began to affect the whole category during the second half of the review period. Overall sales of travel retail dropped by 2% in current value in 2013, the result of the conjunction of three factors. First, traditional tour operators – and to a lesser extent travel agencies – continued to bear the brunt of the consequences of the Arab Spring on the outbound trips to Tunisia, Egypt and North...
