Abstracts

In 2023, travel in Turkey is projected to register strong growth in terms of number of visitors and value sales. The waning of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic continues to have a positive effect on tourism. Inbound tourism flows are registering high growth in terms of the number of trips and current value sales as the devaluation of the Turkish lira makes Turkey a much more affordable holiday option, and a stronger competitor to numerous destinations, including a rival to Spain for sun & sea...
