Abstracts

Travel retail total current retail value sales stagnated in Slovakia during 2013. There were several contradicting trends in the year. Despite economic recovery and growth in the number of outbound trips, travel retail operators were affected by a declining number of domestic trips in 2013. Travel retail grew marginally in 2013 to reach sales worth EUR701 million. Its stagnation was caused by slight decline (1% in current value terms in 2013) in travel retail package holidays sales. The...
