Abstracts

Following the investment of US$150 million in the modernisation and expansion of Lomé-Tokoin International Airport, the number of air arrivals in Togo increased dramatically in 2013. It is anticipated that the airport will now be able to receive up to four times more passengers each year. Having recognised the potential for growth in Togo’s travel and tourism industry and in light of the upgrade of the airport, airlines are now likely to offer more services into Togo. Recently, ASKY Airlines...
