Abstracts

In 2030, the population of the UK will reach 70.8 million, an increase of 12.5% from 2012. The UK's population is ageing and this is compounded by falling birth rates and fertility rates. Meanwhile the average age at childbirth is climbing. London dominates the UK's urban landscape and will continue to do so.

Euromonitor International's Future Demographic reports provide in-depth data and analysis of population changes in 85 countries, 7 regions and a world overview. The reports offer long-term demographic forecasts to 2030, and include breakdowns of population by age and sex, vital statistics and major cities. The series provides insight into demographic trends which will shape consumer segmentation and markets in the future

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
