Abstracts

Underwear, nightwear and swimwear benefited from rising disposable income levels towards the end of the review period. A greater sense of affluence encouraged many mid- to high-income consumers to trade up within underwear, nightwear and swimwear, investing in a wider range of more luxurious, fashionable or comfortable products. This trend was also encouraged by the opening of many new outlets in shopping malls, such as Morocco Mall, which opened at the end of 2011. Rising disposable income...
