Abstracts

Unifood expanded its outlet network during 2015, focusing on its latest brand, Pedro Juan y Diego, which competes in Latin American Fast Food, but also offering hot dogs, with outlets located mainly in retail locations, except for regional outlets, which are standalone. The company is looking to grow on a national scale with its three brands, with a particular focus on its chained Latin American full-service restaurant Pollo Stop. Within a period of two years, the company expects to add another...
