The Asia Pacific region encompasses countries with diverse economies. While China remains a global growth engine, Japan's beauty market continues to contract. However, opportunity areas are clearly showing demand for product customisation, mass beauty and the growing sophistication in men's grooming. The most dynamic markets in the region will remain Indonesia and Vietnam. Brands are aiming to remain relevant and accessible to the young and increasingly affluent Asian consumer base.

Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success. The report also explores developments in the premium vs mass/masstige segments, and the evolution of novel beauty concepts.
