Abstracts

Vending was showing a stable performance in the post-pandemic landscape in 2023, with relatively few players across the level of brand share. These players have been operating in vending in Israel for many years, with steady client locations and public places, such as hospitals, universities, and offices. However, whilst out-of-home lifestyles and consumers return to workplaces have supported sales, we also note a slowdown towards the end of the year due to the conflict in the country creating s...
