Abstracts

Video games significantly outperformed traditional toys and games in 2022, continuing the trend that was established during review period. Sales boomed during pandemic years, when consumers were forced to spend more time indoors and turned to video games for the purposes of entertainment and relaxation. Unlike traditional toys and games, video games are popular amongst both adults and children of all ages, allowing families to play together. While Thais had largely returned to their pre-COVID-19...
