Abstracts

In 2012, Vienna produced 38% of Austria's GDP and was home to 2.9 million residents. Skilled immigrants, a high rate of labour force participation, and career-orientated population support the city's strong economic standing. Business services is one of the key sectors in Vienna dominated by multinational banks and insurance. Vienna is consistently ranked among the top most liveable cities in the world, which is confirmed by high discretionary spending in the city.
