Abstracts

The sales highs of the pandemic are over in vitamins with sales set to decline in current value and retail volume terms in 2023. The category posted an astonishing breakthrough during the hardest moments of the pandemic – from March 2020 to mid-2021 – as consumers rushed to try and boost their immunity. During this period, the winners were vitamin D and Vitamin C. These products benefited from their immunity-boosting claims. Vitamin C was not only consumed as an immunity boosting product during...
