Abstracts

Despite a noticeable slowdown in growth following a dynamic performance in 2020 and 2021 at the height of the pandemic, demand for vitamins in Vietnam continues to rise in 2023, driven by greater awareness among local consumers of their health and wellbeing and the need to support their immune systems. During the peak period of the pandemic, the Ministry of Health encouraged the local population to continue exercising where possible, as well as to regularly take vitamins to strengthen their immu...
