Abstracts

While Western Europe is growing at the slowest global pace, the rise of the ageing population, a growing emphasis on prevention, and increasing interest in online self-education and e-commerce are still supporting growth. In particular, the region shows increasing opportunities for combination dietary supplements and probiotic supplements to support healthy ageing and digestive health.

Euromonitor International's Vitamins and Dietary Supplements (VDS) in Western Europe global briefing examines the size, growth trends and potential opportunities in the Consumer Health market. The strategic analyses include assessing the impacts of changing regulations, research breakthroughs and public health concerns on both the market and leading companies. Consumer attitudes towards the products and their personal healthcare needs are also explored.

Product coverage: Allergy Care, Herbal/Traditional Products, OTC, Paediatric Consumer Health, Sports Nutrition, Vitamins and Dietary Supplements, Weight Management and Wellbeing.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
