Abstracts

Wagg Foods is expected to benefit from its financial strength in the forecast period. The company has minimal debt and continues to be fully owned by its founding Page family. It would thus be able to easily raise finance to fund acquisitions. The company may thus contemplate acquiring brands in the UK, with the acquisition of a premium brand, for example, enabling the company to offer a wider range of options. However, the company also has plans to launch its own new products, having stated an...
