Abstracts

Warehouse clubs in China mainly sell high-end imported daily necessities, such as fresh fruit and vegetables, to middle class consumers, which differs from the cheap bulk purchasing models in most developed countries. With the growing demand for higher-quality products from the affluent population and the rapidly expanding middle class, and the desire for a family-oriented in-store shopping experience, warehouse clubs enjoyed strong retail current value growth pre-pandemic. However, growth conti...

Euromonitor International's Warehouse Clubs in China report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight.
