Abstracts

Watches was one of the worst hit categories by the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020 but is expected to post a mild recovery in 2021 with single digit growth expected for the year. At the beginning of 2021, the category began its slow recovery, but Italy was then hit by a third wave of contagion in March 2021 which left most regions of the country subject to the strictest restrictions again as red zones. This meant that non-essential retail outlets such as jewellery and watch specialist retailers had to...
