Abstracts

Against the background of a historically high stock market, high watches saw almost full current value sales recovery following the COVID-19 pandemic in 2021. High watches returned much closer to 2019 sales levels in comparison to basic and mid watches. Rolex in particular proved popular, with sales growth led by its Daytona series. This range gained great popularity among affluent consumers in Japan with its sporty face and value as an asset. Indeed, while retail sales of Rolex are increasing,...
