Abstracts

During 2020, the purchasing of new watches was dampened by the outbreak of COVID-19, with many consumers regarding watches as a non-essential good, halting the purchasing or replacement of products during a time of economic downturn. Considering the high prices of watches, especially products in the high-end segment, this resulted in a value sales decline of 18% for 2020. Therefore, the COVID-19 outbreak negatively impacted the watches industry, with mechanical watches recording the biggest fall...
