Abstracts

The incomes of many Thai people remained under some pressure during 2021, a direct consequence of the COVID-19 pandemic and the interruption caused to commercial activity in key sectors of the Thai economy during 2020. As a result, demand for watches remained under pressure in 2021, with more expensive categories and brands facing the most challenging scenarios. In response, several major brands of watches sought to expand their target audience to include a wider group of consumers, specifically...
