Abstracts

Overall, wearable electronics is expected to continue to see retail volume growth over 2023. However, growth is projected to be slower than in 2022, and well below the increments seen in the early-to-mid-review period, when the category still basked in the breakthrough with the mainstream audience. Moreover, retail volume growth was entirely the result of the rising demand for fully-fledged smart wearables, which continued to replace activity watches. At the end of the review period, there was a...
