Abstracts

Difficult macroeconomic conditions and a high level of sales in the previous year mostly resulted in retail volume decline in 2023. Sales of wearable electronics are closely linked to the sale of smartphones, which did not perform well either. Activity bracelets, although the third largest category, continue to lose appeal due to competition from smartwatches. Over the past two years, wearable electronics has experienced stellar growth on a global level. The volume decline in 2022 is thus a logi...
