Abstracts

In 2023, weight management and wellbeing is set to post positive value and volume growth. This is primarily fuelled by rising obesity rates and growing awareness of the many health risks associated with being overweight or obese. Thus, there is a growing adoption of weight loss and weight management programmes, including the use of online applications and tools. That being said, value sales for weight management and wellbeing are still low and products are considered expensive. Also, with inflat...
