Abstracts

Global sales of personal accessories rebounded in 2023, driven largely by price increases due to high inflation, with volume sales posting a more modest increase. Retail offline dominates global personal accessories sales; however, e-commerce gained significant share during the COVID-19 pandemic, and has continued to grow. Retail shifts will persist, emphasising seamless experiences across offline and e-commerce. Brands face the challenge of rethinking the store's role in a digital world.

Euromonitor International's Where Consumers Shop for Personal Accessories global briefing offers detailed strategic analysis of the global Personal Accessories market by pinpointing growth sectors and identify factors driving change. The report identifies leading companies and brands within the keenly contested, fashion-driven competitive landscape, trend developments, economic/lifestyle influences, seasonal patterns, market and distribution strategies. Forecasts illustrate how the market is predicted to develop between mature and emerging countries, threats facing the business as well as opportunities to be seized for further growth.

Product coverage: Bags and Luggage, Jewellery, Traditional and Connected Watches, Writing Instruments.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
