Abstracts

In 2017, the UK soft drinks market grew by 1.5% in total volume terms despite the weaker performance of carbonates and juices. While these traditional soft drinks categories are becoming less popular among Britons due to increasing health concerns, healthier soft drinks variants such as reduced sugar and fortified/functional are on the rise. The introduction of the soft drinks sugar tax on April 6th 2018 and the on-going Brexit insecurities furthermore weigh on the soft drinks industry. Yet, the...
