The overall wine category, which comprises a range of very different products, such as champagne, port and apple wine, saw a rather weak performance in 2016, declining by 1% in total volume terms compared with 2015. Amongst young consumers, other alcoholic drinks, such as RTDs/high-strength premixes, are often more popular than wine. To some extent, the preference for wine develops with age, but it appears that the younger generations will be less keen on wine than the post-war generation. Wine...
