Abstracts

In 2022, sales of wine in Spain grew both in total volume and current value terms compared with the previous year. Most categories experienced growth, with sherry being the only exception. Growth was primarily driven by the lifting of all COVID-19-related restrictions, which had affected Spain up until the beginning of 2022. On-trade businesses were able to reopen, and consumers returned to their pre COVID-19 habits. There was also a slight recovery in tourism, which had a positive impact on on-...
