Abstracts

The home improvement industry has been slow to adapt to shifts in consumer behaviour and rapid technological change. However, the emergence of online home improvement specialists drives home the message that home improvement retailers must adapt to survive in the changing retail landscape. Players must understand online and offline shopping motivators, invest in click-and-collect services, maximise use of technology, and leverage data analytics to optimise the in-store experience.

Euromonitor International's Winning Strategies for Diy Retailers in the Us and Europe global briefing offers the big picture view of the size and shape of the Home and Garden market. The report delivers strategic insight into some of the key areas of the market, including emerging regions, countries and categories, as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies opportunities, analyses leading companies and brands, and offers analysis of major factors influencing the market. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success

Product coverage: Home Improvement and Gardening, Homewares and Home Furnishings.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
