Abstracts

Increasingly middle class women are shopping at value brand outlets, such as Carrefour and Max. This is because of the low prices of private label products and the convenience of buying them from Carrefour hypermarkets. Standard lines of international brands, such as H&M, are also performing well. This is because H&M offers its clothing at relatively low costs in comparison to other international brands, such as Nike, Levi's or Espirit, but still maintains its high fashion value as a global...
