Abstracts

Venezuelan women view the purchase of clothing as essential, regardless of age or socio-economic status. Fashion is a key part of personal appearance. In fact, if they cannot buy a product in exclusive stores or expensive brands, they go to informal markets where they purchase high-quality imitations and at times authentic merchandise at lower prices than in a boutique. In 2012, the category showed a better performance as after several years of recession there was a recovery in the Venezuelan...
