Abstracts

While in 2023, current value and retail volume growth of womenswear has not reached the impressive double-digit figures recorded in 2021 (resulting in a full recovery to pre-pandemic sales levels, following a notable drop in 2020 as a result of pandemic-related restrictions), it is worth noting that the category continues to display resilience by maintaining growth levels similar to the previous year. This resilience underscores the enduring appeal of womenswear in Chile, even during a challengi...
