Abstracts

In 2022, with no lockdowns and no major wave of COVID-19, mobility returned to normal across the country. This allowed people to get back to activities such as socialising, organising events and visiting workspaces with ease, which aided the recovery of several womenswear categories. For example, the return of mobility allowed weddings to get back to their previous fervour, which aided recovery of one of the worst-hit segments – ethnic apparel. Apart from weddings, festivals also supported the r...
