Abstracts

Rising inflation has continued to limit consumer spending power in 2022 causing a decline in retail volume terms in 2022 although current value sales remained buoyant. Unit prices have continued to rise in 2022 driven by higher operating costs and the depreciation of the local currency which has made imports more expensive. The higher cost of living has forced consumers to focus on essentials or to switch to more affordable options including second hand clothing, which is booming in Nigeria. Ind...
