Abstracts

Sales of womenswear registered a second year of robust growth in 2023, with current value sales edging even closer to pre-pandemic levels. As the country emerged from the COVID-19 pandemic, Malaysian women became increasingly keen to socialise and spend more time outside the home, which translated into them paying more attention to their personal appearance. Items of formal attire, such as suits, jackets and coats, shirts and blouses and sheer hosiery, outperformed the average growth rate, as of...
