Abstracts

Total volume sales growth for womenswear in Taiwan in 2023 is expected to be down slightly on the previous year. This is partly explained by the normalisation of consumption patterns following the impressive rebound that accompanied the easing of the pandemic and related restrictions in 2022. Additionally, with fear of COVID-19 having largely receded, consumers are now spending more of their disposable income on out-of-home leisure activities. Most notably, demand has been subdued by a boom in f...
