Abstracts

There is a powerful confluence of forces shaping the future of business travel, with the next wave of automation, the rise of the gig economy and digitisation changing how business travellers behave. We consider four potential business traveller types each with their own set of priorities, preferences and devices of choice to see how travel brands should respond to their different needs. Meet the road warrior 2.0, unipreneur, homeworker reimaged and second careerist.

Euromonitor International's Work Reinvented: Future Business Travellers global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Travel market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market from innovation, pricing, channel distribution to economic/lifestyle influences. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and outlines the criteria for success.

Product coverage: Activities, Booking, Flows, Lodging, Travel Modes, Traveller Profiles.
