Abstracts

The outlook for world duty-free looks rosy, as pent-up demand and the recent reopening of China are powering tourism recovery, despite the headwinds caused by the cost-of-living crisis. Duty-free players are diversifying their source markets, expanding their global footprints, embracing omnichannel, as well as delivering immersive retail experiences. Sustainability strategies are increasingly being adopted to ensure that decarbonisation takes place across the supply chain.

Euromonitor International's World Market for Duty-Free: Unlocking Value and New Opportunities global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Travel market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market from innovation, pricing, channel distribution to economic/lifestyle influences. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and outlines the criteria for success.

Product coverage: Booking, Car Rental (Destination), In-Destination Spending, Lodging (Destination), Tourism Flows, Travel Modes.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
