Abstracts

As the largest category within apparel, the trend visible in the overall apparel category is, naturally, also visible in womenswear in 2023, namely a decline in volume terms and muted current value sales as a result of a growth boom during the previous two years of the review period and a shift back from goods to services. Value sales have been boosted mainly by inflation and rising unit prices. While Norwegian women shopped online more than men during the pandemic, womenswear still saw a strong...
