Abstracts

Travel intermediaries bore the full brunt of the global travel shutdown caused by the pandemic, and it is likely to take at least five years for sales to return to pre-crisis levels. Global brands have responded by pivoting to domestic tourism, shoring up their finances and accelerating their digital transformation. Providing greater levels of personalisation and an enhanced holistic customer experience are key ways to stimulate demand. Further consolidation and new entrants are on the cards.

Euromonitor International's World Market for Travel Intermediaries global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Travel market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market from innovation, pricing, channel distribution to economic/lifestyle influences. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and outlines the criteria for success.

Product coverage: Activities and Experiences (Destination), Lodging, Online Travel Sales and Intermediaries, Tourism Flows, Travel Modes, Traveller Profiles.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
