Abstracts

Inflation in the Czech Republic has impacted the results for yoghurt and sour milk products. The increase in prices of raw milk, transportation and energy has caused the prices of final products to rise, which has led to a decline in volume sales – with lower disposable incomes causing consumers to readjust budgets. However, due to price rises, current retail value sales have increased in all areas for yoghurts. As such, yoghurt is among the most commonly bought items during promotions or discounts.

Euromonitor International's Yoghurt and Sour Milk Products in Czech Republic report offers in-depth knowledge of the market at a national level, providing local insight and understanding unavailable elsewhere.
