Abstracts

Yoghurt is expected to register both a decline in current and constant value sales in 2023, though volume sales are expected to increase moderately. With inflation continuing to be an issue, consumers look to trade down and opt for cheaper brands. In addition, informal trade of yoghurt that is smuggled over the border from Mexico also dampens value sales. This not only adversely affects yoghurt players, but also poses a health threat, as these yoghurts are not stored in refrigerators. Value sale...
