Abstracts

The inflationary climate has had a strong impact on yoghurt, not least in pushing retail current value over volume sales. Indeed, the anticipated drop in retail volume sales of by far the main type, flavoured yoghurt, is expected to lead to stagnation in yoghurt consumption overall in 2023, with only modest increments in the drinking and plain formats. At the same time, the category is characterised by strong promotional leverage, which, in a tough economic climate, allows many households to con...
