Abstracts

While current value sales of yoghurt is expected to grow in 2023, constant value sales are expected to fall. This weak performance is reflected in the economy, which contracted in the first half of 2023. An unpopular government, bad weather, high interest rates and inflation are all constraining consumption, though inflation is easing slightly. With consumers still being price sensitive, they are prioritising essential dairy products. Consumers are also trading down. Value sales of sour milk pro...
