Abstracts

As in many other categories, the major trend in yoghurt and sour milk drinks is the consumers' return towards more basic and natural products in 2011. This turnaround favours sales of basic and authentic products such as full-fat fruited yoghurt on the one hand and self-indulgent and rather sophisticated on the other hand. This movement has been at the expense of most health and wellness products, which have collapsed – with the exception of organic products that are in fact also considered...
