Abstracts

Although taste and quality became increasingly important considerations for many consumers, price remained the key factor in the consumer purchasing decision in relation to yoghurt and sour milk drinks at the end of the review period. Czech consumers started to show a clear preference for branded yoghurt and sour milk drink products that were sold in price promotions in 2009 and 2010 and this attitude is expected to persist in 2011, particularly during the first half of the year.
